

I am very much opposed to the loosening of regulations on the cross-ownership of media outlets. I urge the commission to, which was set up to protect the public interest, to put an end to the increasing concentration of media ownership. We the People want more diverse opinions, news and analysis, not less. The increasing commercialization of the media is an extremely anti-democratic trend.